

Lexington

When I last saw you

V1 There was fire in the trees
I ran in the night
'Til I was weak in the knees

Wrote you this letter

V2 That I may never send Tears & ink were spilt
My bones in time will mend

Love in a time of war

C Some things are worth fighting for Lexington is calling me
The north star hanging in the east

Ooo

Saw things never thought I'd see

V3 Raiders from across the sea
You'll be my bride when this war is through Pray the Lord will bring me back to you

First Dance

Intro: G/C/G/C

(Verse 1)

As we summit this rock
That we started climbing
River below us

Flowing & winding

(Here) Heaven is so close
Could reach out & touch us

And now this new journey

That's laid out before us

Together embarking

Angels in chorus

Welcome us in

Free as hawks on the wind
(Em/D/C) On the wind

(Chorus)

From this first dance
To our last waltz
I want to grow old with you
From the first breath of spring
To the last gasp of winter
Canvas, white & new
My stream in this desert

The wind at my back

Manhattan

I walked your streets alone,

Perhaps it was a dream

You've got me feeling like the only living boy

Among the million faces that I see

(Prechorus)

The angels are singing

Up in Washington Square

My thoughts are a quill

Writing poems on the air

G

(Chorus)

I'm sending this song home

Over waves & wires

I've been treading up & down Broadway

And I'm so tired

Pavement to the sky, your streets alive

Are such a lovely view

And, Manhattan, that's mostly

What I need from you

Capo I

Intro: Csus/G/D/Em

(Verse 1)

Among the cedars

A band of light shone on our faces where we

Slept on the damp ground

Where the paper stars had lulled us to sleep and we

Lodged in the caverns

When the rain fell hard or the midday burned with heat

Among the cedars

We found ourselves

Found ourselves

(Chorus)

C/ Among the cedars

We came to light

We came to light

In rhyme & meter

We came to light

We came to life and

(Verse 2)

Among the cedars

The rocky spine of the old AT
where we

Crossed the Hudson River

Never looking back as autumn burned the trees

Our time was innocent

When the sun fell hard & every moment was sweet

Among the cedars

We found ourselves

We found ourselves

Tell Story

Diamonds in the sea

It thrills my heart for me to know

On an empty beach

Your love for me has only grown

Last time you were here with me

I love you more than you could know

The weather's cool and clear

Chorus

Wind and waves are all I hear

~~Break~~ ((pre)) / Chorus

I wish that you were here

Wind and waves are all I hear

And I wonder what you're thinking

I wish that you were here

When you look up at the stars

And the constellation

That we used to claim as ours

And I wonder in this moment

If you're thinking of me, too

When all that I can do

Is ^{dream} think of you

I'm here without you

Oh, here without you

Some memories don't fade

The way that night time turns to day

As gentle waves cascade
